

Irmos One Tone 6

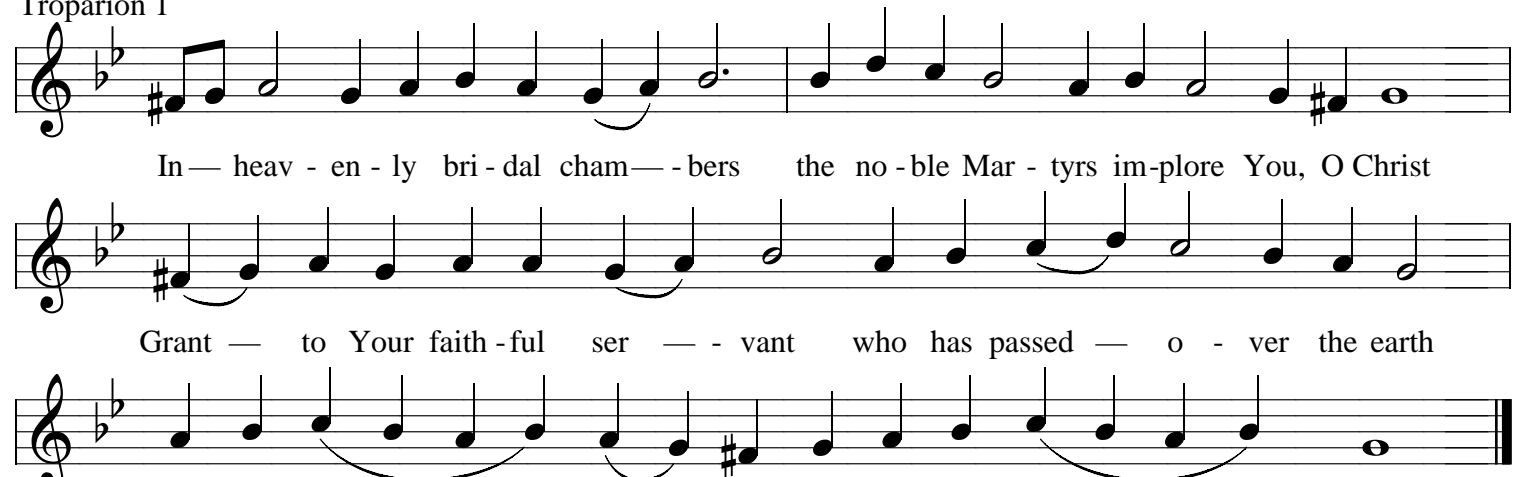

As — Is - ra - el marched on foot in the deep as on dry — land and watched Pha - rao the pur su — - er drow - ning, they cried out:
to — God — let us sing — a song of vic — - to - ry.

At the prayer of Your Mar - tyrs, O Lord — give rest to the soul of Your ser - vant.

Troparion 1

In — heav - en - ly bri - dal cham — - bers the no - ble Mar - tyrs im - plore You, O Christ
Grant — to Your faith - ful ser — - vant who has passed — o - ver the earth the en - joy — ment — of e - ter - nal good — things.

His soul — will dwell — a - mong — Good — things.

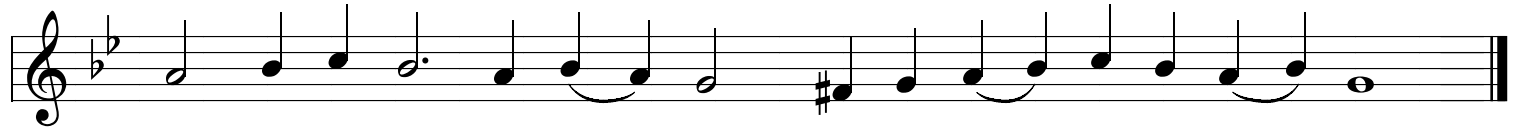

Troparion 2

Af - ter set - ting all things in or - der You fash - ioned me.

a liv - ing crea - ture com - poun - ded mid way be - tween — low - li - ness and great - ness

there - fore give rest, O Sav - - iour, to the soul — of Your ser - - vant.

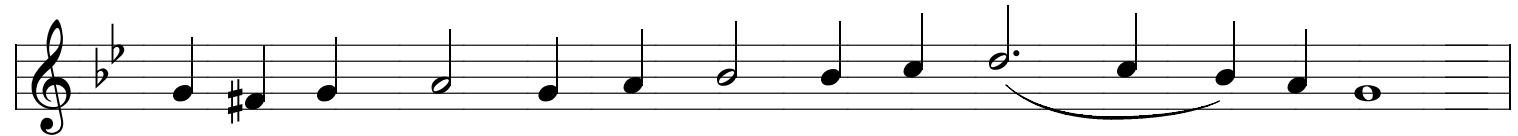

Glo - ry to the Fa - ther and to the Son and to the Ho - ly Spi - - rit.

Doxastikon

De - put - ing me at the be - gin - ing as cit - i - zen and hus - band - man of Pa - radise when I trans - gressed Your com - mand - ment You ban - - nised me.

there - fore give rest, O Sav - - iour, to the soul — of Your ser - - vant.

Now — and E - ver and — un - to a — ges of a - ges. A — men.

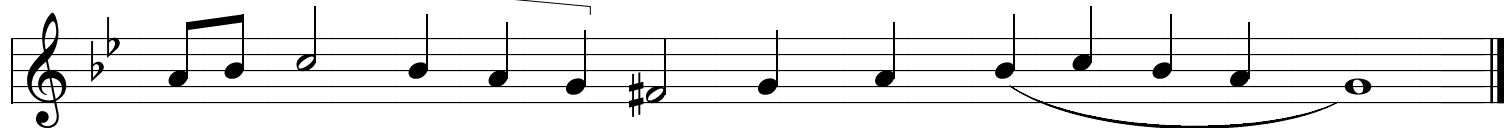

Theotokion

The One who of old fash - - ioned Eve our fore - moth - er from a rib

Dres - ses Him - self — in flesh from your im - ma - cu - late womb, O Pure ——— One through which he has a - bol - ished death's might ———.

As Israel marched on foot... To God let us sing a song of victory!"

At the prayer of Your Mar - tyrs, O Lord — give rest to the soul of Your ser - vant.

In heavenly bridal chambers... the enjoyment of eternal good things.

His soul — will dwell — a - mong — Good — things.

After setting all things... therefore give rest, O Saviour, to the soul of Your servant.

Glo - ry to the Fa - ther and to the Son and to the Ho - ly Spi — - rit.

Deputing me at the beginning... therefore give rest, O Saviour, to the soul of Your servant.

Now — and E - ver and — un - to a — ges of a - ges. A — - men.